Top 10 Legal Issues for Nonprofits: A Free Webinar 11/17

Online (Zoom)

Tue, Nov 17, 2026 @ 12:00 AM EST

As part of its ongoing capacity-building series for nonprofits, the Community Foundations of the Hudson Valley (CFHV) will host a free webinar designed to help nonprofit leaders understand and prepare for the most pressing legal and regulatory issues affecting organizations today.

Led by Maurice Segall, Esq., New York and Fairfield County Program Director at Pro Bono Partnership, the session will cover key issues including governance, employment law, fundraising, contracts and privacy, while offering practical steps nonprofits can take to strengthen policies, reduce liability and prepare for emerging legal and regulatory changes.

Through this series, Community Foundations of the Hudson Valley provides Hudson Valley nonprofits with practical training, expert resources and connections to help organizations become stronger, more sustainable and effective.

Click HERE for more info. Community Foundations of the Hudson Valley: 845-452-3077

This site uses cookies and other tracking technologies for site performance, marketing, and to serve more relevant content and advertisements to you. We share information about your activity on our site with advertising and analytics vendors and other third parties. You can change your preferences at any time by clicking "Your Privacy Choices" in the footer of the site. By continuing to use the site, you agree to our Terms of Use including our class action waiver, and acknowledge our Privacy Policy.